INDEPENDENT LIVING

There are so many reasons seniors love living at Hamlet, and we'd like to introduce you to a few of the folks who've found their ideal home here.

Nancy Ludwig

Nancy Ludwig cared for her parents as they progressed through the end of their lives — and knew they regretted not moving from their home while they had more independence and better health. She decided that for her own retirement, she would settle into a senior living community sooner rather than later. "I'm grateful to have learned from my parents' experience — it prepared me to think ahead and not wait until it's too late."

Nancy had already fallen in love with the Chagrin Valley and was familiar with Hamlet's longstanding reputation. "It's stunning and you feel at home the minute you get here. You already have a family as soon as you move in, yet I still kept all my friends in Chagrin Falls."

She stays active by playing pickleball in the Village and enjoys live music performances, special themed meals, cocktail hour, ice cream socials and more at Hamlet. Best of all, she has formed close bonds at the community, in particular within her apartment building where residents have created a back patio oasis — complete with shared furniture, birdfeeders, flowers and a vegetable garden. "It's really a wonderful place to sit and meet at the end of the day. The commonality between us all is enjoying our age, enjoying our health and enjoying each other's company."
