INDEPENDENT LIVING

There are so many reasons seniors love living at Hamlet, and we'd like to introduce you to a few of the folks who've found their ideal home here.

Richard “Buzz” Parkin

After growing up in Chicago, Richard “Buzz” Parkin came to Cleveland with his wife and children to take a banking position. He loved the area right away, appreciating the Midwestern values, excellent schools and cultural opportunities available to his family. Over the years, he worked both as a banker and a business owner — and truly enjoyed being around people, raising their family and staying busy.

When his beloved wife became terminally ill, Buzz retired from the bank to become her caregiver. As they thought about what his life would look like after she passed away, the couple took a visit to Hamlet — and she encouraged him to sell their house and make the move. “It’s been quite an experience to say the least. Instead of sitting at home worrying about my mortgage, I get to decide what I really want to do every day.”

Buzz has thrived with all the activities offered at Hamlet — wine tastings, museum trips and more — and appreciates the community’s close proximity to the charming village. “Chagrin Falls is right out of the movies. The falls are the centerpiece of the town and surrounded by excellent restaurants and wonderful shops.”

At the heart of his happiness, Buzz has found life at Hamlet to bring fulfilling new friendships and a true sense of belonging. “I have a patio for my neighbors to come over, have cocktails and enjoy life. I’m very lucky in that I love people – and for me, this is definitely the place to be.”
