ASSISTED LIVING

There are so many reasons seniors love living at Hamlet, and we'd like to introduce you to a few of the folks who've found their ideal home here.

John Cimperman

John Cimperman lived actively and independently for many years before experiencing some health concerns which kept him sidelined from his regular golf games and other social outlets. He and his family considered making the move to Hamlet where he would be closer to one of his sons and have extra assistance with his health.

"We felt Hamlet would be a place I might enjoy because it had the most activity and would keep me busy." A former city council member and director of the Cleveland Landmarks Commission, John wanted to keep up with his grandchildren's nearby sporting and school events, as well as his other interests. "I enjoy getting out and walking around on the property. And the activities are all very entertaining."

Most importantly, he felt instantly welcomed in assisted living at Hamlet. "All the people living here are very friendly and the employees are pleasant, respectful and helpful which makes all the difference."
